He did not sell Trout Creek to JAMES WILLIAMS in 1987. ALBERT's parents were the owners of Trout Creek, and sold it to WILLIAMS in 1987. ALBERT said he has never met or seen WILLIAMS.

ALBERT went to Trout Creek last summer with his father since the purchaser of the property was behind on payments, and had not paid taxes on the land. One of the males said he was from Philadelphia, and wanted to raise his kids outside of the violent, drug atmosphere. The other male was the one who recognized his father. ALBERT said he perhaps could recognize these individuals if he were shown photographs.

ALBERT said no one was introduced by a Muslim name or as Sheik. He said the name SHEIK JILANI did not mean anything to him. He had no information regarding any attempt by SHEIK JILANI to purchase Trout Creek in 1985. He was not aware of any attempts by anyone to buy Trout Creek in 1985.

ALBERT advised that he did not know of any threats made to any member of the ALBERT family in regard to both the actual purchase and any previous attempts to purchase Trout Creek. He was not aware of any offers or refusal of sales on Trout Creek.

ALBERT said his first involvement with the people who purchased Trout Creek was last summer. He has not been back to Trout Creek since last summer. He has had no contact with any of these people except for last summer. ALBERT said that he does not know BETH MEYERS.
