OFFICER'S STATEMENT: On 08/16/01, while completing the Search Warrant at 1530 N. Cooper Avenue, I (Detective R.G. Newbury Jr., 1338D) noted an insurance policy for a 1983 Mercedes under the name of Mohamed Hasson. Upon returning to the Police Operations Center (POC), I ran Hasson and determined that he was a previous roommate with Suspect Aziz at the [REDACTED] (via State of Colorado Department of Revenue (DOR) license and the department's CJIS files). A recorded contact telephone number for Hasson was [REDACTED]. A check with the Qwest telephone company revealed that the telephone service was disconnected in 05/01.

According to City Utilities files, both Aziz and Hasson were listed on utilities at the address until 05/31/01. The utilities files denote a forwarding address for both individuals at [REDACTED]. A check of the Cole's Directory and utilities files for this address denote a Joseph and Donna Bagstad (AKA: Afhliman), with a home telephone number of [REDACTED].

Agent Berton checked existing INS and other government databases and learned that Mohamed Hassan was reportedly denied a continued stay in the United States in approximately 1997 and ordered to leave. Based on CJIS files of traffic-related citations in 2000 and most recently in 01/2001, Hassan is still in the U.S. and in the City of Colorado Springs.

On 08/17/01, at approximately 1:00 p.m., INS Special Agent Berton and I (Detective R.G. Newbury Jr., 1338D) responded to the Olympic Training Center (OTC) and met with the following individuals regarding this joint C.S.P.D. and INS case investigation:

1. Dr. John P. Smyth
Director, U.S. Olympic Training Centers [REDACTED]
2. Charles P. George
Manager of Security [REDACTED]
3. Gary L. Johansen
Associate General Counsel [REDACTED]

Note, prior to our arrival, Agent Berton advised me that he had previously contacted a liaison at the U.S. Department of State who informed him that they were also conducting an investigation regarding a reported Mexican national (allegedly saying that he was born in Los Angeles) attempting to secure a U.S. Passport as an Olympic athlete on the Judo Team.

Agent Berton asked Dr. Smyth and Mr. Johansen for:

1. List of consolidated U.S. and foreign nationals on the Judo Team roster.
2. List of foreign nationals on the Judo Team from 1998 to present.
3. Copy of all available application documents for:
 - a. Alaa Abdel Aziz
 - b. Robert E. Britten
